

LNJN National Institute of Criminology & Forensic Science
(Ministry of Home Affairs)

The Institute has approved a research project on the topic 'Group – Supported and Organized offences by children in conflict with law: A Socio-psychological study in Delhi Metropolis'. For this research study the following research staffs is required:

Field Investigators (@ Rs. 25,000/- Consolidated)

No. of Posts- 2 (Two)

Qualification- Graduate or Post Graduate in any Social Science discipline with minimum 55% marks on the date of joining.

Duration of the Job: 2 Months

Duties- To collect data from Juvenile Homes

Desirable Qualification- M.A. Criminology

Walk in Interview Date: 3rd February 2020 at 02:00 hrs.

Prof. (Dr.) B.N. Chattoraj 17-1-20
Dean Academics